Sunday 19th November 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

First Reading Proverbs 31:10-13,19-20,30-31
A perfect wife - who can find her?

A perfect wife – who can find her?
She is far beyond the price of pearls.
Her husband's heart has confidence in her,
from her he will derive no little profit.
Advantage and not hurt she brings him
all the days of her life.
She is always busy with wool and with flax,
she does her work with eager hands.
She sets her hands to the distaff,
her fingers grasp the spindle.
She holds out her hand to the poor,
she opens her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty empty;
the woman who is wise is the one to praise.
Give her a share in what her hands have worked for,
and let her works tell her praises at the city
gates.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 127(128):1-5
R/. O blessed are those who fear the Lord.
O blessed are those who fear the Lord
and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. R/.

Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. R/.

Indeed thus shall be blessed
the man who fears the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
all the days of your life! R/.

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6
God will bring with him those who have died in Jesus

You will not be expecting us to write anything to you, brothers, about 'times and seasons', since you know very well that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night. It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that the worst suddenly happens, as suddenly as labour pains
come on a pregnant woman; and there will be no way for anybody to evade it.

But it is not as if you live in the dark, my brothers, for that Day to overtake you like a thief. No, you are all sons of light and sons of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness, so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

Gospel Acclamation Rv2:10
Alleluia, alleluia!
Even if you have to die, says the Lord,
keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 25:14-30

You have been faithful in small things: come and join in your master's happiness

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of Heaven is like a man on his way abroad who summoned his servants and entrusted his property to them. To one he gave five talents, to another two, to a third one; each in proportion to his ability. Then he set out.

'The man who had received the five talents promptly went and traded with them and made five more. The man who had received two made two more in the same way. But the man who had received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

'Now a long time after, the master of those servants came back and went through his accounts with them. The man who had received the five talents came forward bringing five more. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with five talents; here are five more that I have made."

'His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness."

'Next the man with the two talents came forward. "Sir," he said "you entrusted me with two talents; here are two more that I have made." His master said to him, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have shown you can be faithful in small things, I will trust you with greater; come and join in your master's happiness."

'Last came forward the man who had the one talent. "Sir," said he "I had heard you were a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered; so I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. Here it is; it was yours, you have it back." But his master answered him, "You wicked and lazy servant! So you knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered? Well then, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have recovered my capital with interest. So now, take the talent from him and give it to the man who has the five talents. For to everyone who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough; but from the man who has not, even what he has will be taken away. As for this good-for-nothing servant, throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth."

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Remembering our dead

In November we are invited to use the small brown envelopes and slips of paper provided at the back of the Church to submit the names of relatives and friends who have died. The names will be placed on the altar throughout November, and our loved ones will be remembered at each Mass.

If you have added a contribution, please put the envelope in the collection safe by the revolving doors, using the "Envelopes and Mass Offerings" slot; otherwise, you are welcome to place the envelope in the basket by the altar.

SYNOD 2023-2025

The Universal Synod of the Church has concluded its recent meeting in Rome. Well worth reading are the two documents it produced: a "Letter to the People of God", and a Synthesis Report "A Synodal Church in Mission". [\[www.synod.va/en.html\]](http://www.synod.va/en.html)

Bishop John, priests and lay-people are coming together in our own local Diocesan Synod as it enters a new phase, "The Big Listen", which started on 15th October and runs to 19th January next.

The first of our Chaplaincy Listening Groups met on Friday 27th October: participants came from the Post-Grad group, and were facilitated by members of the Chaplaincy Team in an enjoyable and fruitful "synodal experience" of sharing and listening.

Our next Big Listen session is this week:

The Tuesday Talk: Tuesday 21st 6.30pm

The Big Listen

We want to hear from you!

Do you want to help shape the future of our diocese? Would you like to help us better understand what God is asking of our Church? We want to hear from you as we begin The Big Listen for our diocesan Synod.

You can also submit an individual response via <https://www.dioceseofsalford.org.uk/faith/synod/>
