Faith and the Arts

If you are interested in possible cultural excursions (music, theatre, art), please contact Fr William: pearsall@jesuits.net. The first advertised event is a “twilight” tour of Manchester Art Gallery on Thursday November 20th but we can organise a group experience before then.

THIS WEEK'S SAINTS

Wednesday -- Pope John Paul II died in 2005 and was declared a saint last April. You can find lots of YouTube videos on his extraordinary life and leadership. His support of the Solidarity movement (in his native Poland) contributed significantly to the collapse of the Communist system in Europe. He was a poet, a philosopher and a sportsman – and, of course, a great pope!

Thursday – Saint John of Capistrano was born in Italy in 1386 and obtained Church permission for a separation from his wife so that they could both take vows in religious orders. John joined the Franciscans and is remembered for his austerity and zeal. His feast day is associated with swallows (something to look up!).

Saturday – Perhaps we don't often think about Wales, but that wonderful part of the British Isles has made many contributions to our life and culture. It has also supplied a number of martyrs over the years of anti-Catholic persecution (from Elizabeth I to James II). We remember them at Mass today.

AMDG Chaplaincy News - Sun 19th Oct 2014

A Unique Community

We remember that the word 'Catholic' means universal. There are about 1.3 billion Catholics in the world, which accounts for just over half of the Christian population in the world. It is so important that we remember that we belong to this international body. Today bishops and cardinals from all over the world have been concluding their two week extraordinary synod on the family in Rome – with the beatification of Pope Paul VI. They will meet next year a second part of this double synod process. Many of the participants have commented on what freedom they have experienced in speaking and listening to others from all over the world.

Similarly it is good for us to remember that our student chaplaincy here in Manchester is part of a bigger family. We are associated with NUCCS – the Northern universities Catholic Chaplaincies. On Monday we are hosting the Chaplains from the North West here in Manchester – come and say hello! More importantly in two weeks time – they have organised a festival for young Catholics in Liverpool. A group from the chaplaincy will be attending – with famous speakers such as former Olympian Sr Catherine Holm and former gangster John Pridmore – it promises to be an inspiring day. If there is enough interest we will hire a coach – please see Fr Tim or Fr William if you are interested in coming (see the back of the newsletter for more info – and Facebook 'Embrace Liverpool').

Becoming a Catholic - If you would like to learn about the Catholic Faith, we will soon be starting our annual RCIA programme (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). We begin with an enquiry stage, to share questions and find out what being a Catholic is all about, then we move on to a more systematic programme of instruction.
