THIS WEEK'S SAINTS

Monday – Father Andrew Dung-Lac was one of 117 Vietnamese Catholics martyred between 1820 and 1860 during a government persecution. On this occasion we remember also the many Vietnamese Catholics who died in the 20th century as witnesses to their Faith.

Wednesday – John Berchmans was a young Dutch Jesuit who died at Rome in 1621 while pursuing his studies. He was the son of a shoemaker and gave much edification to those around him by his robust and cheerful faith in God and by his love for Christ. His favourite text from the Psalms was "My heart is ready, Lord, my heart is ready!"

Last week we welcomed the Chase's 'Governess' to the Chaplaincy to host our SVP Quiz. The evening was a great success with plenty of good Spirit, and of course, good general knowledge!

As a result we have raised over £250 for our SVP group which will help support our voluntary activities working with the homeless, a local primary school and the elderly. Thank you to all those who took part and helped out with the evening. Well done everyone!

Students Chante and Jenny with the Governess!

National Food-drive Thurs 27th, Fri 28th & Sat 29th November

Tesco and the Trussel Trust have come together for a weekend of action to help support some of the most vulnerable people over the Christmas period.

We need volunteers to help collect food. Full transport provided from the Chaplaincy. If you can give 3 hours on any of the days, please email warehouse@manchestercentral.foodbank.org.uk

(P.S. We urgently need volunteers who can drive)

Month of Remembrance

Our deceased loved ones will be remembered at all Masses in November. The November Lists will be placed on the Altar of All saints & the Holy Souls, in the far right of the Sanctuary. If you would like to remember a loved one please place your name on the green sheets by the entrance of the church

Christ the King

J R R Tolkien in a letter to Fr Rob Murray SJ said that 'The Lord of the Rings is of course a fundamentally religious and Catholic work, unconsciously so at first, but consciously in the revision,' Some theologians have speculated that a Christology emerges during the trilogy, with the central character in each book each performing the role of Christ the Priest (Frodo), Prophet (Gandalf) and King (Aragorn). The final book, Return of the King, draws profoundly on Catholic beliefs about 'End Times' - Christ the King who returns to inaugurate a new era and Kingdom of Justice and Peace.

Today marks the last week of the Churches year - the liturgical year - before Advent season begins next Sunday. The readings of the last few weeks have been taken from the book of Apocalypse - adding to that sensation of coming to the end of days.

Today we celebrate the feast of Christ the King, in anticipation of his Kingdom, whilst also realising that we have a duty to work to help bring about that Kingdom.

Preparing for Christmas

Then the liturgical wheel turns and we prepare to celebrate the birth of the baby King at Christmas. Advent is a time of preparation and waiting. In the Chaplaincy we are offering a week of guided prayer in the first week of advent. During that week there will be the opportunity to meet daily with a prayer guide, and also attend three workshops on prayer if you would like. Places are limited and always in demand - so pick up a booklet at the back of the church, for more information and to register with Stephanie in the chaplaincy. There is no better way to prepare for Christmas!
