THIS WEEK'S SAINTS

Monday – St Edmund Campion and Companions were the first Jesuit martyrs to bring the message of hope to persecuted Catholics in England at the time of Queen Elizabeth the 1st. Many Catholic Englishmen, forced to do their studies on the Continent, joined the priesthood in order to keep the faith alive among their countrymen and all faced a terrible death if discovered.

Wednesday – St Francis Xavier was the greatest of the early Jesuit missionaries and in spite of the difficulties of travel in the mid-16th century he left his homeland forever in order to bring the Gospel to India, South-east Asia and Japan. His positive experiences of the “natives” helped to change European attitudes towards non-Christian peoples.

Saturday – St Nicolas was a 3rd-century bishop who in later tradition became known as “Santa Claus”. His charity and gift-giving made him a popular symbol of the Christian spirit and in many countries this day is the unofficial start of the Christmas season. In Catholic counties he is still represented with a bishop's mitre. And a white beard, of course!

Christmas is busy time of year for foodbanks.

Advent - Season of Waiting

This week we celebrate the first Sunday of Advent. Adventus is the Latin word for 'Coming' and so these next four weeks we await Christ's birth at Christmas and also our longing for him to come again at the end of time. Signs of Advent are everywhere, the Foodbank has been inundated with chocolate Advent calendars and in the church we begin lighting our Advent wreath. The tradition of the Advent wreath comes from northern Europe when people would replace the wheels on their carts with skis to cope with the winter conditions. They then decorated their discarded wheel with ivy and placed five candles to mark the countdown to Christmas. In this country when people started to go on skiing holidays with the development of air travel, they would see these pretty Advent wreaths and brought them back to this country. As we light the candles daily at Mass we anticipate the light of the world coming into our darkness.

Traditionally, it is a time of spiritual preparation for one of the most significant Christian feasts. A time of prayer and penance marked by purple vestments and colours in the church. It is easy to forget the spiritual preparation for Christmas, as we enter a never-ending round of Christmas parties and present-buying. This is why next week (7th-12th December) our Week of Guided Prayer helps us focus on the spiritual preparation for Christmas. We agree to commit to a bit of extra prayer and are accompanied by an experienced guide who meets us every day. There are still some places left so fill out the form at the back of the church. Even if you can't do the daily meeting you are free to come to the workshops on prayer on Mon, Tues and Thurs evening (see next week's bulletin for more information).
