This Week's Saints

Tuesday – St. John Ogilvie is the only Saint from Scotland to be canonised since the reformation. He came from a famous Scottish clan and became a Jesuit, was ordained a priest on the continent and returned to his native Scotland to keep the Faith alive. He was martyred in 1615.

The Novena of Grace in honour of St. Francis Xavier finishes officially on Thursday (12th March) but if you wish to make the Novena and you are starting late just take a leaflet, and pray it at home.

Last week the Foodbank fed a total of 63 people.

We provided emergency relief for 48 adults and 15 children in crisis.

To help us continue our work please email: mancfoodbank@yahoo.com

The SVP group ran a breakfast club every morning at a primary school in MossSide and made 4 homeless runs

CONFIRMATION

If you have been Baptised as a Catholic and would like to be confirmed this spring (May 24th) then please contact Fr William at: pearsall@jesuits.net

On Thursday Fr Tim will be launching the Faith in Film competition in London. This is a chance to win a six-week internship in a Hollywood this summer working in a small production company. Launched in Manchester last year a local student won the first prize, and one of our own students was in the final three. For more information see <https://t.co/M6yCYXzKFG>

Coming up

Student Cross

Sat 28th March – Sun 5th April 2015

Student Cross (Sat 28 March - Sun 5 April 2015) is pilgrimage during Holy Week to Walsingham. It is a great opportunity to get away from things, and to be around fellow Christians and more importantly grow closer to God. It is truly a rewarding experience that will benefit you in more ways than one. Please follow the link <http://www.studentcross.org.uk/index.htm> to find out more and come next week where past walkers will be available to talk about their experience and answer your queries after mass.

Lenten Week of Guided Prayer

One of the three things that Catholics are asked to do in the Lenten Season is to spend some extra time in prayer. Following the great success of our Advent week of guided prayer we are holding one next week for Lent. Beginning next Sunday (15) with an opening meeting at 5pm it is a great chance to learn and practice prayer.

We will have a team of 'prayer guides' who will be available in the chaplaincy that week – some will be staying here, others travelling in every day to help. So apart from the opening meeting what is offered during the week

- The chance to have a daily 30min one on one meeting with your prayer guide
- Workshops on different aspects of prayer in the evening
- Information and advice on developing a prayer life that works

Students & Staff are welcome to sign up for this – just pop in to the Chaplaincy and give your name & details to Stephanie or email her on general@muscc.org.uk

Setting a small period of time aside for prayer everyday helps to give great balance and perspective in a very busy life. However places are limited as the prayer guides only have a set amount of time available – so sign up as soon as you can.

The workshops are open to all and begin at 7pm in the chaplaincy – the themes covered are different to Lent and are as follows

Monday: 'Ways of Praying'
Tuesday: 'Being my True Self'
Weds: 'Making a Rule of Life'
You are welcome to attend even if you are not taking part in the Week. On Thursday Fr Tim is giving his third Lenten Talk on 'The Good Life'
