Sunday 29th October 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A)

First reading Exodus 22:20-26
If you are harsh with the widow and orphan, my anger will flare against you

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Tell the sons of Israel
this:

“You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children
orphans.

“If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play
the usurer with him: you must not demand
interest from him.

“If you take another’s cloak as a pledge,
you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 17(18):2-4,47,51
R/. I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise,
when I call I am saved from my foes. R/.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me,
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed. R/.

Second reading 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10
You broke with idolatry and became servants
of God; you are now waiting for his Son

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction,
and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere.
We do not need to tell other people about it:
other people tell us how we started the work
among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants
of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 22:34-40

The commandments of love

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Eucharistic Ministers

Please email Fr Dushan (dcroossj@jesuit.org.uk) if you are interested in becoming a Eucharistic Minister. There are many other opportunities to help out, so if you have a gift or a talent then please let us know!

Holy Communion & Blessings:

We welcome everyone to share in our celebration of the Eucharist, but ask you to respect that receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in Communion is reserved to Catholics. If for any reason you are not receiving Communion, please come up for a blessing, and indicate this by crossing your arms across your chest.

The Bishops ask us to bow (rather than genuflect) as a mark of reverence as we approach the minister, and (while respecting individuals' freedom in this regard) the Bishops also ask us to receive Communion standing rather than kneeling.

The priest or minister holds up the Sacrament and says The Body (Blood) of Christ, to which we answer Amen, so expressing our faith. St Augustine writes: To that which you are, you answer 'Amen'.

If we are receiving on the hand, St Cyril of Jerusalem (313 -386) says "make your left hand a throne for your right, which is on the eve of receiving the King."

If we are receiving on the tongue, we put out our tongue 'strongly', to enable the Host to be placed safely and reverently, (and to minimise any contact with its risk of cross-infection).

The Universal Synod of the Church has concluded its recent meeting in Rome, with a Letter to the People of God published last Wednesday. Across the Church worldwide, we continue the work of the Synod before its next gathering in October 2024: we are invited to pray together, to listen, and to contribute our reflections as the Holy Spirit guides the Church in its continuing journey.

SYNOD 2023-2025

Bishop John, priests and lay-people will be coming together in our own local Diocesan Synod as it enters a new phase, "The Big Listen", which started on 15th October and runs to 19th January next. We are being invited to join one-off Listening Groups, spending an hour-&-a-bit in a spirit of prayer to discern together what God is asking of His Church in the Diocese of which we are all a part. If you already belong to any of our many WhatsApp groups, you will soon receive an invitation.

If you don't belong to a WhatsApp group, but want to join a Listening Group, please email the chaplaincy on mucc@dioceseofsalford.org.uk.

You can also submit an individual response via <https://www.dioceseofsalford.org.uk/faith/synod/>
